Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I grew up in Meopham. I still live in Meopham. The location of the planned housing estate is where I played as a child. The footpath from Norwood lane to the railway bridge is a huge beautiful space which offers a rare escape for dog walkers and a safe place to play in nature for younger children. Without doubt the space offers a sanctuary for a wide range of wildlife. I personally have seen an owl, a buzzard at one point, swifts, many flocks of smaller birds landing on the field to feed and be safe in the tops of the trees on the small woodlands. This wildlife will not come back with houses. I utterly oppose to building on greenbelt especially in a village with such history and local culture. Shame to anyone that approves this level of destruction to what is one of the few naturally beautiful areas of our historic village.

Kind regards
