Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I grew up on this lane and my parents are still residents. The fact that there is yet another planning permission request is ridiculous. All previous comments still stand and refused planning permission needs to be upheld by the council. We are upset about the disturbance to the local hedgerows (vital for our local wildlife) with no regards to the impact they are having but cutting down 50+ year old trees with no permission and not on their land. In addition, disturbance at ridiculous times in the morning to deliver caravans at 2am which signals they know what they are doing is wrong. The site is a greenbelt site vital for the countryside and supporting the local wildlife. Turning the fields to hardstanding is going to impact ecology and the flooding of the area by removing permeable surfaces.

Kind regards
