Reasons for comment:
Comments:	This site is already being occupied by travellers who have erected mobile homes fencing and electric gates depute a court injunction and no approved planning they have also destroyed many mature trees. Since taking residence the traffic in the lane has increased dramatically with many unsuitable Lorries going up and down the lane at high speed causing huge danger to the local people who for many years have used this area for walking cycling and horse riding. I would also question what would happen if I as a law abiding citizen applied for planning in the same area ?

Kind regards
