

20250764

I totally object to the above referenced Planning Application. This land is being illegally occupied, at present , by travellers in defiance of an existing Perpetual Court Order. It was deemed at a previous planning application, that this land was not suitable for a travellers site due to the poor, narrow minor road access, as remains the case. It is also prime agricultural land.

