Reasons for comment:
Comments:	Good to see it moving forward, the building is derelict and windows have been smashed in, I've seen the car park being used to buy drugs and it's only going to get worse, so all those haters out there what do you want, it's not down to the council to find someone willing to turn it into a viable business, be glad that McDonalds will refurbish the building to a high level, if you're afraid of your children buying junk food then talk with your children to maintain discipline for a balanced diet, we did it growing up so have some trust in them. If anything they can get a job there in the evenings and weekends.

Kind regards
