Reasons for comment:
Comments:	The current locations of the mosques in the borough make it difficult to access a place of worship. This is centrally located, would accommodate the growing number of religious followers. There is Parrock street car park a few minutes walk away which would also mean less issues with parking and perhaps even a growth in the local economy. I understand this would be a hinderance for the local neighbours and a loss of heritage to some extent. However I do believe this may even strengthen the local community through diversity and inclusion.

Kind regards
