Reasons for comment:

Comments: I was shocked to see the extension size will be 6metres, approximately 18feet. I had an 8ft extension built in the 80's. When I look up and down the back gardens there are no extension's of more than 8 ft. If this goes ahead it will be half of their garden maybe more. I really don't want to come out of my back door to see a massive 10 ft wall.

[REDACTED] However she also told me her sons are organising everything. That is why I am opposing such a huge extension.

Kind regards
