Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I object for many reasons. I don't know how you expect the area to cope with all these houses being built. I have to travel from [REDACTED] secondary to take me children to school, what should be a 10 minute journey, on some occasions due to heavy volume of traffic or if there are roadworks can take up to 45 plus minutes which has resulted in them being late for school. Is there a new school being built for the families that may live in these houses? Doctors surgery? Traffic by the parade is always busy, it will get worse! Parking is awful. I can guarantee with most new builds parking will be lacking, which will make surrounding areas worse. What about the wildlife, where are they expected to go? Leave our green space alone, there's a reason people enjoy living in the countryside.

Kind regards
