Reasons for comment:

Comments: I would like to object to this as I'm a local runner who has encountered the large Lorries that will be travelling to this site on a regular basis on the proposed lane and had to literally stand in a bush to allow the lorry to pass .
I personally feel this would be a poor decision as there's also no vehicle passing points on this road meaning if you encounter a lorry you could end up reversing for quite some distance before being to pass.

Kind regards
