Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am a resident of Batts Road.I vehemently oppose the plan on two counts. Firstly I do not believe that the construction of what is planned to be an industrial bottling plant unit is in line with the planning permission that was originally granted to the site. The building will also ultimately become a retail unit or more likely a domestic residence. I also massively oppose the planned entrance to the site which I believe is at the junction of Gold Street and Batts Road where a farm gate already exists. As a farm gate to an agricultural field the traffic flow would have been very minor. As an entrance to an industrial unit traffic flow will be much higher and will make an already dangerous access far more dangerous

Kind regards
