Reasons for comment:
Comments:	As this land already has an injunction on it prohibiting the siting of any form of building and it is a Green Belt area I feel it is very unjust that travellers can bring mobile homes down the Lane at 1am on a Sunday morning using chain saws to cut down 100 year old trees and mechanical diggers to widen the lane to allow access to the site. This was followed by numerous unsuitable lorries bring hardcore and soil up and down the also causing damage. Having caused so much unrest to then submit a retrospective planning application would seem to have been a pre planned operation and a way of carrying out a land grab. Having lived in the Lane for numerous years it has always been used by local people cycling walking and jogging etc. and this has now changed. As a law abiding citizen i wonder what would happen if i applied to erect 8 dwellings in the same area?

Kind regards
